Hip-Hop History Has Been Made

July 2010

Hip-Hop legend Krs-One produces a uniquely talented emcee...

Krs-One Presents...

A desperate housewife jerked Greenie off into her husband's dinner salad while the unsuspecting cuckold worked in his office. The Planned Parenthood doctor who gave him a vasectomy, instructed Greenie to send in a sample for testing after 20 ejaculations...so he presented his fiancée with a medical prescription "requiring" her to play with his dick 21 times. NJ cops beat him senseless for drug dealing yet he's never sold drugs in his life. He's from Queens, NY but now lives in rural Floridian swamps (much like Shrek!). His new 'hood has deadly alligators and he's been eating up emcees since the mid 1980's. In 2009, he hooked up with Krs-One and in 2010, they dropped the hip-hop history-making album, "It's ALL Good"...

- Greenie is an unusually skilled up-and-coming rap star...
(Rap Weekly, June 23, 2010)
- "Greenie's album may teach a thing or two to both die-hard fans of KRS and those looking for something new in Greenie..."
(Brooklyn Bodega, June 2010)
